Voters to Decide School Board Members, Budget

By Sue Ann Jones

Five candidates will run for election to three positions on the Roosevelt Board of Education Feb. 14. In the same election, voters will decide whether to approve the school's 1978-1979 proposed budget.

The candidates are Irene Brum, Carl Johnson, Pat Kaye, Merle Rose, and David Zaleski. For more information about the candidates and a pre-election candidates' forum, see page 4.

The proposed school budget for 1978-1979 totals $476,206; the current year's budget is $470,688. The amount of this budget which would be raised by local taxes is $335,016, up from the current $322,881 because of decreased state aid.

A public meeting will be held at the school at 8 p.m. Jan. 24, in which members of the school board's finance committee (Norman Nahmias and Jane Jelinek) will answer questions about any "line item."

Implementing the budget would require a tax increase to $3.12 per $100 assessed valuation (for school tax only). The current rate is $3 per $100 assessed valuation.

This would mean the owners of an assessed $40,000 home, now paying $1,200 in school taxes, could expect to pay about $1,248 under the new rate, if approved.

Zoning Change Recommended

By Bob Clark

The Roosevelt Borough Council Jan. 11 tabled an ordinance recommended by the Planning Board which would prevent a proposed residential subdivision on the eastern side of North Valley Road. The Council planned a meeting with the Planning Board to clarify the purposes of the recommended ordinance, which would rezone a 1,000-foot-by-300-foot strip of land from its present residential designation to agricultural. After that meeting, which was expected to take place within a few days of Jan. 11, the Council will decide whether to pass the ordinance.

The land, part of a field owned by Xerox Corp., was purchased Dec. 1 by Dr. Rebecca Notterman of Hightstown. She submitted plans for a proposed subdivision of ten lots along North Valley Road. The Planning Board responded by recommending the zoning change from residential to agricultural. Mayor Leon Barth, a Planning Board member, said "There seems to be a general feeling that it should all develop in the same manner."

The Council also approved a contract with Animals Unlimited Humane (cont. on P. 1, supplement)

ROOSEVELT BOROUGH COUNCIL HOLDS ANNUAL REORGANIZATION

By Bob Clark

As mandated by state law, the Roosevelt Borough Council held its annual reorganization meeting Jan. 2. Newly-elected councilmen, Louis Esakoff and Aaron Datz, read and signed their oaths of office.

The Council approved these appointments by Mayor Leon Barth:

Arthur Shapiro, council pres.; Samuel Sagotsky, municipal attorney; Howard Schore, municipal engineer; Robert Eisner, accountant; Adlerman & Click, insurance agent; Elson Killam Assoc., sanitary engineer; Jacob Blutstein, water and sewer collector; Jean Libsohn, deputy clerk; Aaron Datz, Planning Board representative. (cont. on P. 1, supplement)

Store Hit by Masked Robber

By Merle Rose

At 5:55 p.m., Jan. 2, just as Richard Stout, the twenty-three-year-old manager of the Roosevelt Market, was about to reach for the key to lock the store, he turned toward the counter to find a masked man facing him. The man was white, between 25 and 30, with a red mustache and was wearing dark sunglasses, Stout said.

"This is no joke. Just do everything I tell you," the man said. Holding his hand in his pocket to indicate a weapon, the man moved to the opposite side of the counter, squatting so he could not be seen from outside, and ordered Stout to get down, too.

"He demanded cash," Stout said, "and he refused change."

Stout handed the thief $294, and the man threatened again: "Hurry up or I'll kill you."

After getting all the money, the masked man asked if there was a back door. "The one thing on my mind," said Stout, "was to get him out of here."

The robber headed toward the back of the store, one step ahead of the frightened manager. When he realized Stout was following, he repeated, "Don't try anything or I'll kill you."

As he passed the meat counter, he ripped the telephone off the wall, told Stout to open the back door and then to lie flat on the ground, arms spread out. No car was heard leaving the premises. After three or four minutes, the profoundly shaken Stout got up and called the state police, who are now investigating the case.

For related story, see page 2 of the news supplement.

GROSSMAN FUND ESTABLISHED FOR FIRST AID SQUAD

A memorial fund in the name of the late Zelda Grossman has been established for the Roosevelt First Aid Squad. More than $300 has been received. When enough money is available, a piece of equipment will be purchased. Send donations to Roosevelt First Aid Squad, in care of June Counterman.

MANDATORY DOG LICENSES NOW ON SALE AT BOROUGH HALL; PENALTY FOR LATE PURCHASERS

Roosevelt residents' dogs must be licensed after age six months. The licenses are sold during January for $4 at the borough hall. After January, a penalty fee is charged.

To purchase a dog license, the owner must present a current rabies vaccination certificate. If purchasing by mail, a description of the dog should be included with the $4 and the certificate.

Licenses are sold Tuesdays and Wednesdays between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m., and between 2 and 4 p.m.

For more news of interest to dog owners, see the Council Reorganization article on page 1.

Talk Back to Your Newspaper!

In response to last month's question regarding the towing of cars parked on roadsides during snowstorms, Marvin and Karen Block, Elm Ct, wrote:

"It is quite clear to see that with cars on the road, removal of snow can be burdensome. But what can families do when they live in a court, and own two or more cars?"

"The driveway is short and can only accommodate one vehicle; where do we park the other cars?"

"Why should we be penalized by having to pay for towing when, in fact, we do legally have a right to park on our property?"

This month's issue solicits readers' ideas on this problem:

What are your suggestions for deterring small-town crime, especially theft and vandalism?

Send answers to Sue Ann Jones, Box 243.

Members of the community and the Bulletin staff express get-well wishes to Borough Clerk Izzie Sackowitz, who is ill, and to Ray Bender, the Market butcher, who was recently injured in an automobile wreck. Bender received broken ribs, and injuries requiring several stitches, and was hospitalized several days.

FIRST AID SQUAD PLANS BLOOD DRIVE, GETS MEMBERS

By June Counterman

Our blood drive begins at 7 p.m. Feb. 14 in the First Aid Squad Building. If 50 donors volunteer, all borough residents can receive free blood as needed during the next year.

Even if that goal is not met, the policy is extended to families of all donors. One unit of blood now costs between $50 and $125 in area hospitals.

Helen Barth, Sylvia Feigenbaum, and Jessie Norris recently joined the First Aid Squad.

To arrange non-emergency medical transportation, call 448-3182 or 448-0552.

State to Locate Equine Center South of Here

By Pat Kaye

The State Department of Agriculture announced earlier this month that 140 acres of the Assunpink Wildlife Management area south of Roosevelt will be converted to an equine center.

Agriculture Secretary Phillip Alampi is taking credit for the idea of an equine center and his department will oversee its development and use through the state's equine advisory board.

Georgia Rogers, secretary of the equine board, said last week the proposed center will not pose traffic problems in nearby communities.

She said the activities at the site will draw small crowds rather than large ones.

She said the center will be used for horse shows, rodeos and for pleasure riding over wilderness trails.

In the distant future, polo, steeple chase and indoor arena facilities may be added.

The site, according to Ms. Rogers, lies 1.4 miles east of Cox's Corner, with frontage on County Route 524. Her description of the location would place the planned equine center due south of Roosevelt.

The land was transferred earlier this month from the Department of Environmental Protection to the Agriculture Department.

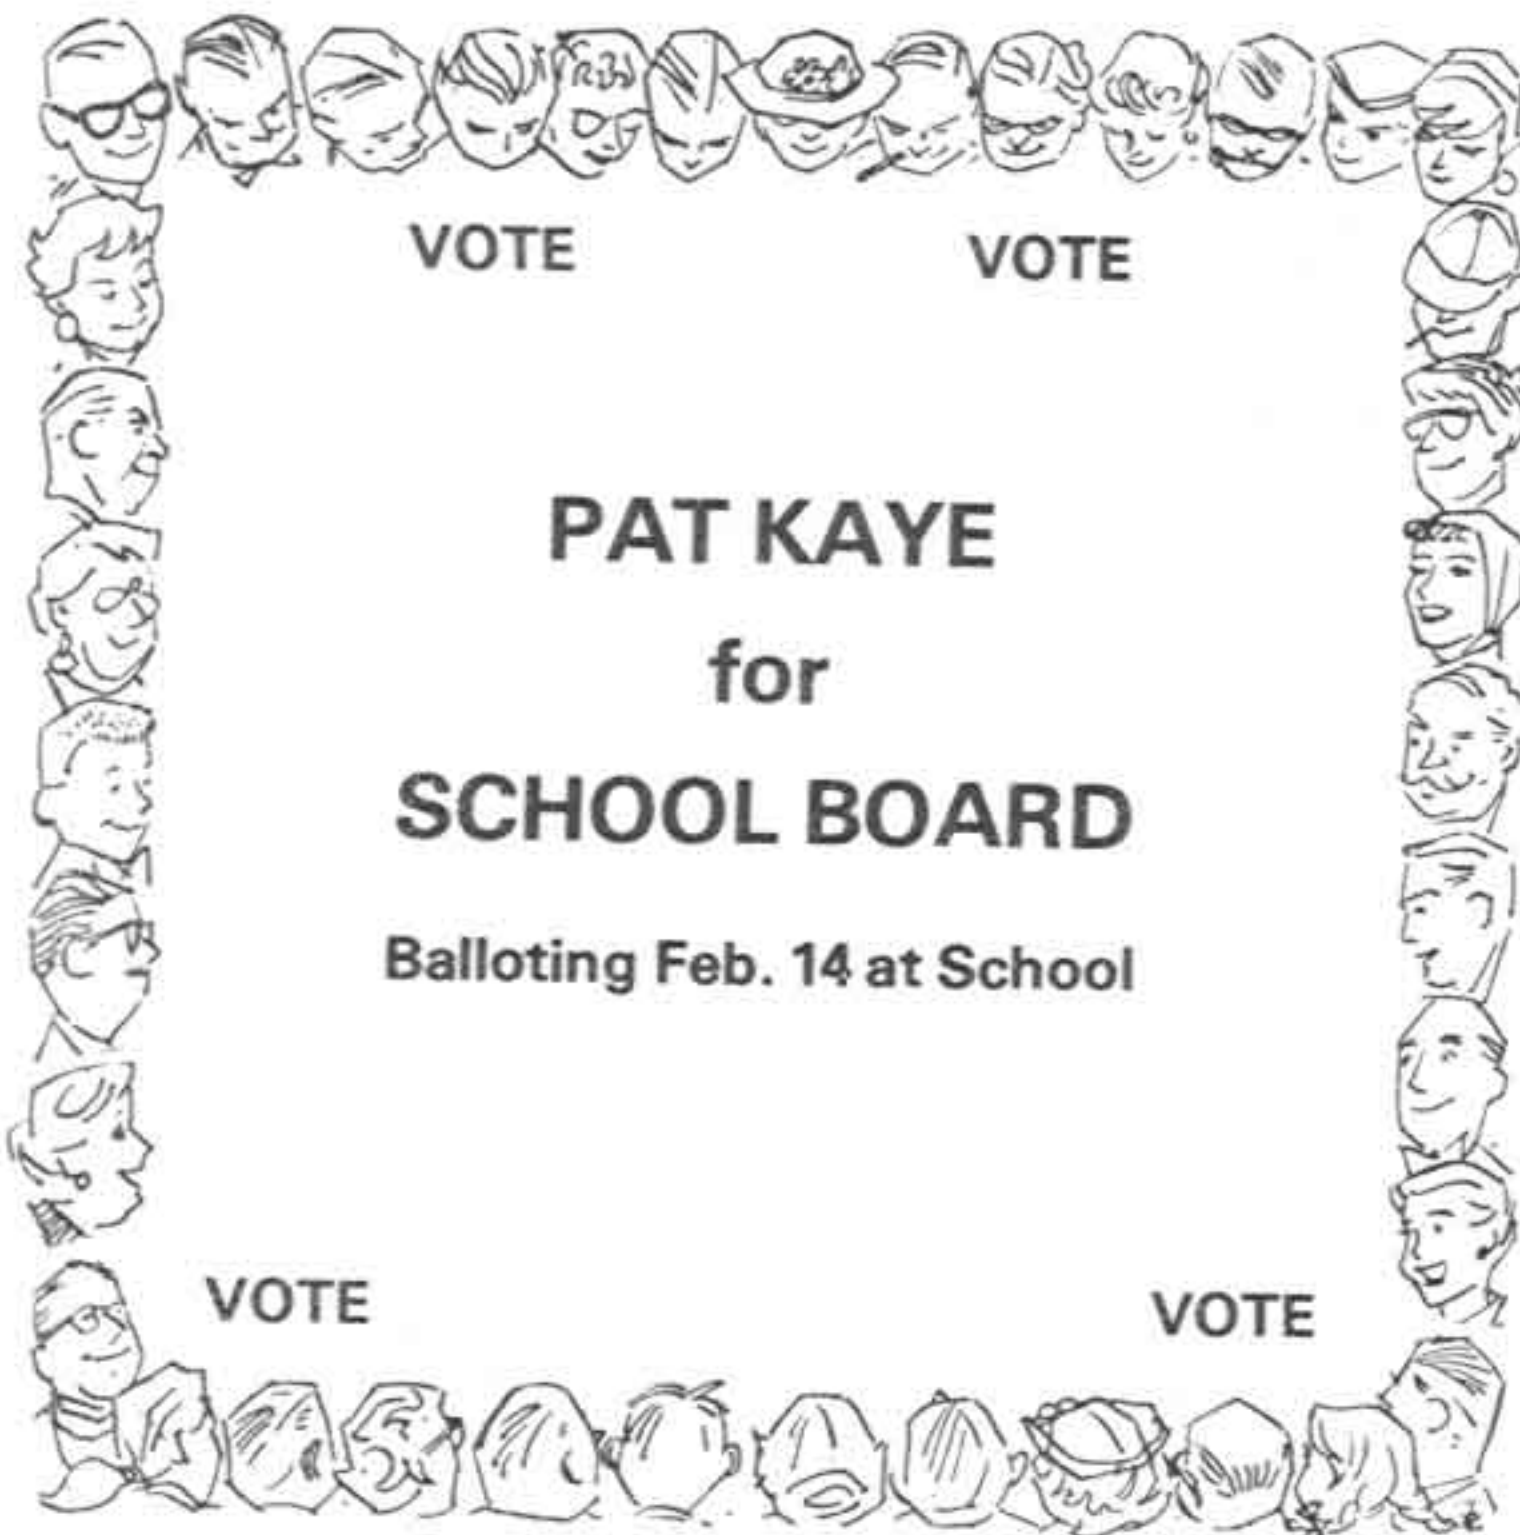

The equine board can begin now to draw a master plan for the site. According to state officials, cost of the master plan will be covered by the $50,000 already budgeted for initial expenses by the equine board.

Currently the project is financed by a small percentage of the handle at New Jersey race tracks.

The equine board is composed of representatives of the horse industry in the state.

Roosevelt Voters Get Chance

The five candidates running for the three, two-year positions on the school board will participate in a PTA-sponsored Candidates' Night at 8 p.m. Feb. 9 at the school. At the forum each candidate will make a brief statement of his or her position, and will then answer questions from the audience. Mayor Leon Barth will be the moderator.

The election will occur Feb. 14 at the school. The order of candidates' names on the ballot was determined by a drawing. The order of the names will be: Carl Johnson, Irene Brum, Pat Kaye, David Zaleski, and Merle Rose.

Below are brief descriptions of the candidates' backgrounds:

Fellow Voters:

On February 14th my name will be on the ballot for the Board of Education. I am taking this opportunity to provide information about myself so that you could consider casting a vote for me.

My interest in the Board is not only that of a tax conscious resident but a parent with one child in the school and another to follow within three years.

The assets that I could bring to the Board include the following:

Bachelor of Science and Master of Business Administration; extensive experience in labor relations and negotiations of labor contracts; solving of complex administrative and operational problems of public institutions and agencies; experience as an appointed member of the Board, and a sincere desire to assist in the continuance of the present trend of improvement I feel has taken place in the school.

I have the support of several present members of the Board of Education and would appreciate your support on election night.

PRINCIPAL'S LETTER

Early Closings Explained

We've all returned from the holiday vacation and school is once again in full swing.

In a memo sent home with children, the early closing dates for the spring were listed. There will be nine early closings between now and the end of the school term. This time is used by staff to work on a number of tasks. We are establishing curricula in the major academic areas. Mathematics is our current focus. We also work on fulfilling the requirements of Thorough and Efficient legislation. Some time will be spent working out more effective ways to deal with classroom problems. Much work has been done in the early closings we've already had.

We need substitute teachers. Our staff absentee rate is extremely low. However, there are times when we need substitute teachers in all grades and physical education. In order to be a substitute in New Jersey you need to have completed 60 college credits. The salary is $25 per day. If you have taken 60 credits (or more) and you're interested, please contact Lew Gantwerk at the school.

On Tuesday, Jan. 10, David Terry attended a conference for teachers with Mrs. Chasan, Ms. Fremon, Mrs. Uklist and about 50 other teachers from districts throughout the state.

The conference was on classroom organization and management and David was the only student who attended. He participated actively in the conference and hopefully will be able to help put what was learned at that conference into effect.

The R.P.S. basketball team is being coached by Mr. Roy Gottiaux this year. There are currently two home games scheduled:

Thursday, Feb. 9 against New Sharon
Tuesday, Feb. 28 against Cranbury

Our third through sixth graders will have the opportunity to participate in a READ-A-Thon for the National Arthritis Foundation. This is a program which enables children to raise money for arthritis research through reading books.

If you have any questions about school, please contact the school office and we'll be glad to help answer them.

Lew Gantwerk

Rector Places In Regional Hoop Shoot

Jackie Rector placed third in district hoop shoot competition last Sunday.

The basketball contest was held at Monmouth Community College gym, where Jackie competed with 10 girls her age.

Jackie entered the regional match after winning the area competition in Hightstown.

She is a seventh grader and a member of the R.P.S. basketball team.

Also competing on Sunday was Debbie Nahmias, a fifth grader.

PARENTS' ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETS SECOND WEDNESDAY

Title I Parents' Advisory Council meetings are held the second Wednesday of each month that school is in session.

The next meeting will be Feb. 8 at the school at 8 p.m.

If you have any questions concerning these meetings, please call Mrs. Helen Barth, chairperson, at 448-1870.

Information concerning State Compensatory Education Programs will also be discussed at these meetings.

P.T.A. OFFICERS NOMINATED

Voting was to take place last night (after the Bulletin's press deadlines) on a list of nominations for officers of the Roosevelt P.T.A.

Nominations were made at the December meeting, but voting was postponed until this month in the hope of a larger turnout of members.

Judith Goetzman was chairman of the nominating committee, which submitted the following list:

President, Sandy Orlando; first vice president, JoEllen Grossman; second vice president, Jan Terry; recording secretary, Lynn Friedman; corresponding secretary, Naomi Brahinsky; treasurer, Judith Goetzman.

The following people volunteered to accept P.T.A. responsibilities:

Tom Froncek, publicity; Elly Shapiro, fund raising; Merle Rose, membership; Jan Terry, Walking Small.

Also at the December meeting, P.T.A. bylaws were formulated.

The possibility of sponsoring some movies during the year will be researched.

State Evaluates Title I Efforts at R.P.S.

Roosevelt School's Title I Program was rated "Good" in eight out of 10 categories recently by a team of state monitors.

School board members heard, at a Jan. 10 meeting, that state officials had recommended changes in two program areas.

They opposed the payment of $128 in secretarial services out of the school's Title I account, and they recommended the Title I Coordinator use state checklists to chart the progress and compliance (with state standards) of the local program.

In other matters, the board hired Ms. Marsha Schrob to give instruction at home to a borough student who was expelled from high school.

The board voted to pay $8 per hour for five hours of home instruction per week.

It was decided that R.P.S. would not close for Martin Luther King Day, but such a closing will be considered when next year's school calendar is planned.

Principal Lew Gantwerk reported the heater has worked better after Central Boiler installed a special propane gas ignition.

He added, however, that propane gas tanks will have to be moved outside and new hook-ups installed.

Board members authorized the use of up to $1,000 to install the propane ignition permanently.

The board also voted to spend $677 for a new fire door in the gym. The existing door is in bad repair and its replacement is costly because it must meet state standards for fire doors.

The board moved its February meeting from the 14th (election day) to the 23rd, a Thursday.

The meeting will include reorganization of the board and acceptance of bids for roofing at the school.

Board President Marcia Sheinberg thanked Stephen Grossman, Beth Johnson and Bob Rector for their service as members of the school board.

BROKEN WATER HEATER REPLACED

At a special meeting of the school board on Jan. 3, board members voted to spend $700 to replace the school's broken water heater.

The price includes installation costs.

COUNCIL REORGANIZES

The appointment of public librarian was postponed pending receipt of the Library Committee's recommendations on community library needs.

The Council passed a resolution authorizing continued use of the Millstone Township Municipal Court facilities for Roosevelt Municipal Court matters. Mayor Barth said the Borough pays $25 monthly to use Millstone's facilities, regardless of whether Roosevelt cases are actually heard there. He noted, however, that at least $1,200 for tape recording equipment and other expenses is avoided. Councilwoman Esther Pogrebin expressed concern that some residents, particularly senior citizens, might find it inconvenient to make complaints at the Millstone Court. Mayor Barth replied that appropriate arrangements could be made.

Mayor Barth re-appointed Wilbur Loftus to serve as constable for a three-year term. Councilwoman Pogrebin suggested it might be time for the Borough to assess whether the present part-time police protection is adequate. Councilman Esakoff noted "serious crime problems," in the community (see article on the Roosevelt Market robbery, page 2), and said, "This part-time arrangement is very inadequate; Council should deal with this on an open and straight-on basis." Mayor Barth said he would prepare facts and figures for future discussion of the problem. Some members advised that any portion of a meeting dealing with the performance of the police staff should be held in a closed session as a personnel matter, excepted from the state's "sunshine" law.

A resolution was passed allowing the Borough to charge the maximum interest allowed by law for delinquent tax payments after ten days of the due date: 12 percent for amounts over $1,000 and eight percent for smaller amounts.

The Council adopted a $5 annual fee for a copy of meetings schedule, and a fee of $1 per page for copies of the meeting minutes

Center of Howells Township to provide dog control services to Roosevelt.

The Borough will pay $50 per month for three visits per week to canvass the streets for stray dogs. Animals Unlimited will also respond to emergencies involving animal bites or rabid animals. Owners will have to pay $5 for the pickup and $5 per night for boarding when retrieving animals from the center. No dogs will be released without proof of licensure. Finally, Councilman Marton promised to investigate the procedure for empowering Animals Unlimited employees to issue summonses to violators. The service begins Feb. 1.

Deputy Clerk Jean Lipsohn described the borough's efforts to sell the old Borough Hall. She said letters had been sent to five area realtors inviting them to sell the premises under an open listing arrangement. Although none has attempted to place the property with a multiple listing service, it has been shown to at least one prospective purchaser, she said.

The Council confirmed Mayor Barth's appointment of George Levinson to the Zoning Board of Adjustment and Arthur Shapiro and Esther Marton to the Welfare Board.

The Mayor also appointed these residents to the Planning Board: Aaron Datz, Mel Friedman, Virginia Edwards, and Peter Berlinrut. He then appointed Council members to various committees of the Council.

Armed Robbery Greets Market's New Manager

By Herie Rose

Arriving Jan. 27 as manager of the Roosevelt Store, Richard Stout envisioned his indefinite stay in this "rural-but-unbelievably-varied-community" as a quiet interval between graduating from college and matriculating in law school.

Little did he expect that barely within a month's time, he would experience a cops-and-robbers-style holdup—unprecedented in Roosevelt's 42-year history. Stout's good humor and spirit do not appear to have been seriously affected, however.

Who is this young man?

Stout grew up in Ocean Township, attended Westminster School in Simsbury, Conn., and received a political science degree from the University of Miami in May 1977. Now, he lives with his parents in Miami.

Stout got to Roosevelt, not through "a gust of wind that blew him off Route 33," as he jokingly suggests, but through his friend, Joseph Rettagliata (one of the store's owners).

He finds Roosevelt to be friendly and constructive. His only complaints relate to the outdoor sign ("an eyesore," according to customers), cleanliness, and the limited stock. He said he is open to suggestions and is trying to incorporate as many as feasible. For example, suggestions have been having sales. So he selected dented cans from the stock and put them in a cart marked "Half-Price." He will continue to offer sales, he said, using a new "Special of the Week" sign donated by Coca Cola.

The Roosevelt Market was managed for several years by Sol and Bebbie Berg, who retired last fall to Florida. Until Stout's arrival, the store was managed by Ray Bender, who has been the store's butcher for the last two and a half years. Part-time employees are Ellen Preston and Joan Tiedle.

COMMUNITY MOURNS DEATH OF NANA (HONEY) BERZELLER

One of Roosevelt's oldest residents, Nana (Honey) Gruber Berzeller, died this month.

Mrs. Berzeller was born in 1886 in Transylvania. Her first husband died during World War One. They had two daughters, Ellie and Ilus.

Mrs. Berzeller and her family came to America in 1923, and later settled in Roosevelt. She left the community after her marriage to Adolf Berzeller, but returned after his death in 1965 and lived here until her death.

Survivors include Roosevelt residents Ellie Bermowitz, and Ilus Lobl, her daughters, and Diana Mueller, her granddaughter.

The family expresses its appreciation for the many kind acts of condolence.

SENIOR CITIZENS CHANGE MEETINGS TO AFTERNOONS

By Ilse Riesenfeld

Meeting of the Roosevelt Senior Citizens will be held in the afternoon at 2 p.m. until further notice.

The new meeting time was established at the January meeting, which 30 members attended.

The next meeting is planned for Wednesday, Feb. 8. At that time, forms will be available for senior citizens who have not filed for the state's new Drug Assistance Program for Senior Citizens.

BIRTHS

Shelly and Jerry Reimar of Edison recently became the parents of Carla, a daughter, and Keith, a son.

Grandparents are Froida and Leon Anish, Pine Drive; Great-grandmothers are Mrs. Louis Altman and Mrs. Joseph Anish, both of Farm Lane.

Robert Klein, son of Mrs. Diana Klein, Pine Drive, recently returned from a three-month visit to Australia, where he studied history at the University of Australia. He is now completing his junior year at Rollins College in Florida.

Molly Bulkin is taking orders for new Jan Jongg cards. The cost is $1.75 each; profits go to the Roosevelt First Aid Squad. Call Mrs. Bulkin (446-2455) by Feb. 1 to order cards.

ROOSEVELT BOARD OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL LANE
ROOSEVELT, NEW JERSEY 08555

January 20, 1978

Dear Neighbor,

The proposed budget for the school year 1978-79 is attached. It will be presented to the public for discussion and questions on Tuesday, January 24, 1978 at 8:00 p.m. in the School. We hope that you will study it before that time and will come and participate in the budget hearing. Please bring the budget statement with you.

The State has imposed "caps" on school budgets. This means that based on expenditures in schools throughout the State, the redistribution of state education aid, and the ability to raise money locally, the State has put a limit on the amount of money a community may spend on education. In many districts this cap has forced the reduction of programs. These districts have applied for waivers of their caps and are requesting that the State allow them to raise more money locally. In our district, we will be able to maintain our programs within the cap set by the State.

The attached budget reflects a total increase of 1.16% over the current year's budget. It indicates an increase in the local tax levy of 3.62%. This increase allows us to continue to operate our school and continue to improve the education our children are receiving.

Please come to the budget hearing on Tuesday, January 24th at 8:00 p.m. in the school. We would like to explain the budget to you and answer any questions you may have. We feel that when you understand the proposals, your vote will be in favor of the proposed budget for 1978-1979.

The budget will be presented to the voters for their decision on Tuesday, February 14, 1978. The School Board election will be held at the same time. The polls will be open from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Sincerely,

Marcia Sheinberg
Marcia Sheinberg
President

BUDGET STATEMENT AND PUBLIC HEARING

In accordance with the New Jersey Statutes related hereto, Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the School District of the Borough of Roosevelt has prepared a tentative budget for the school year beginning July 1, 1978, and ending June 30, 1979, which is on file and open to inspection at the secretary's office in the Roosevelt Public School, School Lane, Roosevelt, New Jersey.

Public Hearing on said budget will be held at the Roosevelt Public School, School Lane, Roosevelt at 8:00 p.m. prevailing time, Tuesday, January 24, 1978.

Any citizen interested in any question concerning this budget will be given an opportunity to be heard.

A summarized comparison of the tentative budget with that of the current year follows:
